Welcome , it's Autumn, or so we are told. The weather continues to be mild and balmy and hopefully the children still have outdoor playtimes to enjoy after school. Lots going on in Modbury this month , business first , see important meetings ( on right) , then pleasure second. No need to wait for Christmas to get into a winter socialising scene...not only is our front page an invitation in itself, but there is a scout jamboree, a wine and cheese party and great outdoor activites between walk and talk ( although this can lead you astray, see adventure on page 2!) Beach cleans and sports clubs. Keep those contributions coming in, and photos please. Ed.

The Dirty Dozen have an adventure,

It all started on a Walk and Talk. Someone suggested going on a canoe trip down the river Dart.

It didn't take long for twelve intrepid ladies to claim a place in the canoe

There was a bit of a breeze, that's all. Our guide Phil, of Canoe Adventures, tried to instruct us how to use the paddle, but we were talking! We set off at a fine pace but not exactly coordinated.

This is easy someone said, as we moved effortlessly away from the slipway by the Maltsters Arms, at Tuckenhay and heading for Stoke Gabriel with the tide. But before we could get our paddles to move in time. We had to abandon ship. Phil was worried that the wind was picking up and it could be dangerous.

Nothing daunted we waded through the very muddy bank of Bow Creek to set up a barbecue. Despite the mizzle we foraged for dry wood for the fire and made a shelter, many recalling memories of Brownie and Guide camps.

The fire was soon blazing away and Burda took charge of cooking the sausages, unaware of the cow pat she was kneeling in! a welcome cup of tea, cake and fruit and it became a veritable feast!

It was too windy to go on canoeing and not enough water to canoe back so we made our way back to Tuckenhay on foot.

We set off up the field to find the road.. All seemed well till we met a herd of South Devons in the narrow lane leading up to the farm. They were in no hurry to move and we were all set to turn round and go back, not being prepared to squeeze our way between them. However, we had among our number Farmer Anne. 'They are sweeties' she claimed 'Come on!' As she patted one of them soundly on their rump.

So off she went with the rest of us cowering behind her (get it?)

Many earned their bravery badge that day.

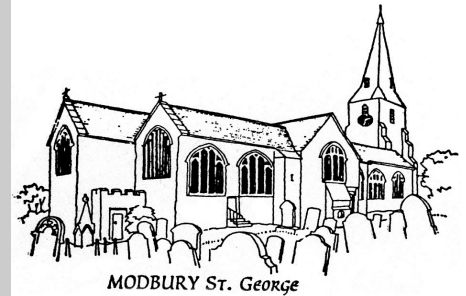

Eventually we made it back to the cars. Most people were up for a return trip, maybe in the Spring? Anyone else up for an adventure?

World War 1.

Modbury School, WW1 Experiences.

1914. A school collection raised 81 shillings to be handed to the Patriotic Fund, later a Bazaar raised 21 shillings and 59 old pence for the Belgian Refugees.

Miss Mortlock, Head of the Girls school, as a result of the pressure of the "Great Crisis," added to the curriculum the topic of the War and its location in Europe, showing maps of the location of the British and German troops on the battlefield. A war relief fund for the League of Young Patriots had been established in the school. Minnie Williams established an attendance record for having reached the age of 14 and attending school for 11 and half years without once being absent. She was presented with a silver watch.

1915. School give a half day off to watch the Devon Regiment march through Modbury.

1916. During needle-work lessons the girls were taught to make socks for the troops. Eight dozen eggs had been collected for the local Military Hospital. * Concern was expressed regarding the lack of enough water to flush the toilets; it was the duty of the caretaker to pump the water to a cistern.

1917 The school became a mixed school with 118 pupils; some of the children had to work before coming to school. George Fox-- Standard 4- - had to walk 7 miles to school each day after working in the early morning. His teacher commented "He is so tired that he unable to do any good work".

A lantern lecture was given on the topic "War in the Air" to all the children.

1918.Government offered to pay 3d per pound of blackberries: schoolchildren given two half days to collect the berries. The first day they collected 3Cwt 18lbs and the second day collected 1Cwt 12 lbs. Peace Day spoilt by continuous rain. Empire Day celebrated each year to extol the Greatness of our Empire.

1919. In May Mr Salway the Head teacher received a framed copy of the French General Orders, relating to the gallant action of the 2nd Battalion Devon Regiment on August 20th 1915. It was hung in a conspicuous place in the school, and he told the children that the French Army considered the action of the 2nd Devons in this engagement as a most brilliant episode of the whole war, where 528 men and 28 officers gave up their lives than give in to the enemy.

"Was it for this the clay grew tall? "

O what made fatuous sunbeams toil

To break the earth's sleep at all."

Alcock and Brown flew in a modified Vickers Vimy Bomber, across the Atlantic in 15hrs 57mins landing in Galway, Ireland to win the Daly Mail International prize.

Devon Remembers

It will all be over by Christmas, we better hurry and sign up or we will miss the action.

Such was the enthusiasm of the young men at the time but for some in Modbury who were already serving members of the forces, they were ready for action. Early in August 1914, Chief Petty Officer Lames Kennard, who was a Blacksmith by trade, left his home in Modbury to join his ship, the armoured cruiser HMS Monmouth. On 6 August he set sail for Chile via Cape Horn to investigate German trade that had been revived between Valparaiso and Punta Arenas. They found no movement on the coast but, while at Valparaiso, the crew had the chance to send letters. One young Royal Marine wrote: 'Dear Mother & Dad, On our way now to the Falkland Islands South America, have just left Monte Video. Getting along alright hope you are the same....I don't expect the war will last much longer...'

However, for HMS Monmouth, along with the 3 other ships of her squadron, the war was about to start in earnest when, on the evening of 1 November 1914, they found the German squadron of Spee, Scharnhorst, Gneisenau, Leipzig, Dresden and Nureberg; all modern ships with crack crews. The setting sun silhouetted the British squadron whilst the German ships were hard to see in the failing light. The German fire was rapid and accurate and during the evening HMS Good Hope suffered a magazine explosion and sank soon afterwards with no survivors. HMS Monmouth was also in a bad way, on fire and listing to port. Closing in, the Nureberg finished her off with gunfire at point blank and all hands were lost.

The pride of the Royal Navy had been dented with its first defeat for over a century at the Battle of Coronel and the loss of two armoured cruisers and nearly 1600 crew. Modbury had its first casualty of the War – Chief Petty Officer Kennard. His name is carved on the war memorial and recorded in the Church. A memorial to all those who perished at Coronel can be found in the Christ Church Cathedral in Stanley on the East Falkland Island.

District Council Report.

Considering Sites for Development: an Our Plan Consultation.

Our Plan is the name of an overarching strategic plan for the whole district. It is being put together by South Hams District Council through a series of consultations and investigations which started last Spring and end next year.

When completed Our Plan will contain approaches for housing, the economy, health and well being, etc...to help shape the district up until 2031. You can find out more about Our Plan by visiting this link <http://www.southhams.gov.uk/ourplan> or by viewing one of the monthly Our Plan newsletters in the parish office.

Our Plan will eventually include plans for growth and development from Bickleigh and Woolwell in the west to Dartmouth in the east. South Hams District Council is currently reviewing a range of options – locations, numbers and form - for housing growth ready to present for consideration. This is a complex and difficult task with many challenges and important questions for all those concerned with Modbury and the South Hams.

As part of this process the district council is currently working on a technical exercise to consider potential sites for housing development. Sites from across the district have been put forward for consideration for their suitability for housing development and have been assessed by an expert panel. Now the district council is asking what the public think of these sites and to comment on the assessments made so far.

The assessment was carried out by a panel and the judgements are shown in a table with comments and colour coding across a range of criteria, – eg those sites considered most suitable are shown as green.

You can see the results of these assessments on <http://www.southhams.gov.uk/siteassessment> or by visiting the parish office.

What this consultation is not.....

This consultation is not an exercise to identify and set aside actual sites for development now in the way that RA1 (Palm Cross Green site) was allocated five years ago. Nor is it an assessment of communities' preferences or aspirations for development. It is not a guarantee that development will take place if sites have been submitted and it is not a guarantee that sites with significant constraints could not be developed if these constraints can be overcome (but note the expense of overcoming constraints), or can see ways in which the constraints can be overcome.

What it is.....The consultation is an opportunity for communities to form their own views about individual sites. It will also form a piece of evidence from which the district council can consider its growth and development option plans and may form part of an evidence base for future plans for Modbury either shaped by a neighbourhood plan group or the district council. And of course, there will be the influence of national planning policy, infrastructural and funding limitations.

How to make your comments....write to the strategic planning team at SHDC or use the comment form on line to the right of this link... <http://www.southhams.gov.uk/siteassessment>

Perhaps you disagree with the assessments The deadline for your comments for this consultation is 3rd October, 2014. (Parish councils were notified in August and it was reported in the Messenger parish report last month). NOTE ALSO that you can make separate comments to do with the future of Modbury and the South Hams at any time during Our Plan preparation from now through to next year. Also your district councillors are here to listen to and represent your views. Meanwhile, we have been calling for people to come forward and learn more about neighbourhood planning. If you would like to learn more about this come and meet Phil Baker on Monday, 29th September 7. 30 pm in the Memorial Hall side room.

NEW READING SERVICE FOR LOCAL PEOPLE LIVING WITH DEMENTIA

Erme Remind has joined forces with Dementia Friendly Parishes Around the Yealm to offer a new service for people living with a dementia in our parishes.

It is just confirmed that this service will start from the 9th of October in the Queen Elizabeth 2 Pavilion in Modbury up at the Recreation Field. There is ample parking, disabled access and facilities. We would like people living with dementia and their carers to come along on 9th October and try the first session of reading and learn more about it.

The sessions will run from 10. 30 am to 12 pm every Thursday morning term time only.

They will be hosted and facilitated by people trained in this field.

The service is provided by the Reading Project - <http://www.thereader.org.uk/what-we-do-and-why/older-people-dementia.aspx> and you can find more about it from this link.

The Not-so-Green Corner.

Stand still and people-watch in Modbury at almost any time and odds are you'll see someone texting or making a call on their i-phone. The communications and internet explosion of recent years means that we take much for granted without thinking about the network behind it and the amount of energy it consumes.

A recent report shows that the little i-phone in your pocket probably consumes more electricity than the fridge humming in your kitchen. The information-communications-technologies (ICT) ecosystem, which includes phones, digital TV and the power-hungry "i-cloud", consumes an astonishing 10% of the world's power.

It's the same amount of electricity that was used to light the entire planet in 1985. Apparently it takes more electricity to stream a high-definition movie over a wireless network than it would have taken to manufacture and ship a DVD of that same movie. Think how many electronic devices we had 20 years ago and how many we now have.

The "i-cloud" will get bigger and hungrier.

What can we do about it? Probably not a lot! I had always thought that working from home, as many do these days, was an eco-friendly option, saving fuel and motor expenses, office heating and avoiding travel by using Skype conference calls via the internet.

Writing articles for magazines on your home computer and sending them in by e-mail, saves paper and postage costs, but somewhere there's an internet provider cooling down his warehouse size computer server.

In future I shall turn off the computer and all its add-ons, printer, router and speakers when not in use, and even switch off my mobile. Maybe you will too.

The problem is I may just have to borrow yours to phone home to make sure I buy the right kind of cheese from the Deli.

October already!
Where has the year gone?

f MODBURY NEWS

The Facebook page is going from strength to strength ... Don't miss out, 'like' us and get all the local news from your town.

Issue 13 produced by The Breakfast Club in association with Modbury & District Business Chamber Our Barrow Market has ended for the summer, it has been a great success and many compliments have been received from all over the South Hams. The Market has been featured in Devon Life, The Post, The Gazette and the Messenger of course! Thank-you to Donna Harris and Nikki Shepley for helping us to be published. We'd like to thank the Modbury community for being great sports and supporting us on Saturday mornings. The funds will promote the Barrow Market better next summer.

The high street has a double page spread in Devonshire Magazine to promote late night openings on Thursday nights from mid-October until Christmas. Please do show your support and take advantage of the longer opening hours.

Taekwondo - Lesley McGill

How did you get the Taekwondo bug?

I was working as a Marketing Officer for Dawlish Leisure Centre and we were opening new clubs. A friend was going to an open evening and asked me to go with her....she never went back and I never left!

Any special memories from Taekwondo?

I am so proud that Sophie Barnet, one of my instructors is now an assistant GB Coach and her daughter, Yanie, is in the GB Squad going to the World Championships! I also got to meet Choi, Hong Hi, the founder of Taekwondo which was an amazing moment for me.

If someone was interested in joining what advice would you give them?

Come and give it a try! Our classes in Modbury are on Mondays from 5.30 - 6.30. Or phone me on 07801491183.

Circuit Training - Dave Smith

Why Circuit Training in Modbury?

As an Athletics Coach I thought it would be a good activity for adults to do over winter so I started the Circuit Training about 20 years ago. The activities vary but most of those who attend really enjoy the interactive games we play and usually the first question is 'what game are we playing tonight' - and this is from the adults! It's mainly adults who attend with an equal amount of men and women. We have had teenagers but they should be with a parent or adult.

If anyone is interested who should they contact and where is it held?

Sessions are over winter in the School Hall on Wednesday evenings at 7.30. Phone me on 01548 830872 for more information.

Ladies Running Group - Carol Strong

What made you start a Running Club?

I moved to Modbury in 2008 and saw some women running on their own or with a friend and noticed that some were not running properly and could end up with problems later in life. Around that time there happened to be a School Fun Run so I printed off some flyers and handed them around - that's how the SHORE Footed Running Club started! SHORE stands for South Hams Outdoor Running Exercise!

Where do you run and how do you join?

It's females only and we run every Sunday morning usually from Aveton Gifford car park but sometimes from Modbury. I run a learn to run 10 week course several times a year and anyone who comes on it will be able to run 3 miles when they have finished. If anyone is interested contact me on 07968258059 or email me at cfstrong@btinternet.com

Short Mat Bowls - Margaret Romney

I know that the club was originally started by Brian Weeks in the late '80's when he discovered that the South Hams Council were hiring mats and equipment for a £1 a year, so he hired two sets! How did you get involved with Short Mat Bowls?

It all started when I saw a plaque dedicated to the people who provided the Short Mat Bowl equipment and thought what a pity they are not used. I enquired and found that the equipment was still in the hall. I then asked around and found that several people were interested and so we started the club again.

Do you need to be agile to play?

No! If anyone is interested we meet every Tuesday at 2pm at the Memorial Hall or they can phone me on 01548 831173.

Pilates - Rachael Foster

I gather from your accent that you're not from Devon.

You're right, I come from Auckland, New Zealand! My partner is English and we've decided to come to England for a few years.

Have you always taught Pilates?

No, I took Pilates up about 8 years ago after having injuries to both my ankles. Prior to that I taught Step and Snowboarding!

If someone was interested in joining your class what advice would you give them?

Some people are quite shy about trying Pilates but they shouldn't worry, just come and try it! I run a session at 9.15am on Monday mornings in The Pavilion as this is a good time for parents who have just dropped their children off at school or early birds. All are welcome including teenagers. If anyone is interested they can contact me on 07585320247 or email me at foster.rachael@icloud.com

Tennis Club - Paul Eden & Brian Weeks

Brian, when we came to Modbury there were no tennis courts, so how did you get a Tennis Club going?

The present tennis club came about because in 1992, the Parish Council sent a survey to every house asking what activities people wanted and Tennis had the most requests. Then Ron Wood and I had a meeting where we organised to play tennis in Kingsbridge and so started the Modbury Tennis Club. As time went by we got a loan from MARS and others and built the courts we have today. Saying that I have an article from The Gazette dated July 12th, 1946 where it mentions the results of Modbury playing tennis against Kingsbridge!

Paul, if someone wanted to join the Club how do they go about it and what's available?

There are different levels of coaching available from beginners to improving. Family membership is £56, single membership is £36 and student membership is £18.50 per year. Someone who is not a member of the Tennis Club can play tennis for £6 an hour, just go to the Post Office, pay the fee and they will give you the key. Club sessions are on Sundays from 9.30am and Thursdays from 6pm. If anyone is interested or would like some more information phone me on 01548 831064.

Jeremy Hibbard – Televisionary (Media Productions)

Do you come from Devon?

My father was in the forces so we moved regularly but when I was 7 we moved to Shaldon. Once I started working for West Country Television I moved to Yealmpton and later to Modbury, so I'd consider myself a Devonian!

How did you get into the media business?

When I left school I became a business lawyer but quickly found out that it wasn't for me so I did a course in radio journalism and then got a job with the BBC in Leeds as a reporter and presenter for BBC news. I must say I wanted to be a radio or TV reporter from about the age of 10!

That must have been exciting!

Yes it was - particularly as I arrived in Leeds as the Miners' strike started so was put in at the deep end. It was a great start and taught me how to think on my feet as things changed so quickly – and I learned how difficult it is to give a balanced report on events when one side won't speak to you!!

What brought you from Leeds to Devon?

I got a great job as a senior news reporter for West Country News and after a few years I became the Controller of News for West Country.

So you went from being in front to being behind the camera, was it a big change?

Yes, but very exciting juggling what would fit into each section of the news and if some big news story broke having to change everything while recording live. A fantastic time.

When did you decide to run your own business and is it news related?

Once West Country TV was sold I decided this was the time to start my own business. We tend to make factual programmes such as documentaries and factual entertainment programmes such as recording the London Boat Show or The West We Like Best.

How do you get the ideas for programmes?

My ideas come from real life and I find that walking in the countryside or by the coast is where I get most of my inspiration.

Do you find you have to travel much?

Yes, as well as having to travel to different places to make the programmes we have offices in London, Belfast and are opening one in Dublin shortly.

Is it difficult juggling crews, filming etc.?

Sometimes. I remember one time we had three crews going to different parts of the world and we ended up meeting at Bristol airport on the same morning going to different destinations, all unplanned! Another time we had a situation where we were filming in the south of France and had to finish filming at home, so we had to make Salcombe look like the south of France!

Have you any words of wisdom for someone wanting to go into the media?

Be determined and be lucky! It's an industry that doesn't have nice organised career paths, its crazy paving and you have to lay it yourself.

What are you most proud of?

I'm very proud of the five Royal Television Society Awards and the Media Innovation award for T.V we've received. I'm also proud of the young local people we have taken on and trained and are now doing great in the industry. It's a pleasure to see their names in the credits.

Josie Hall - 23rd Scout Jamboree in Tokyo

Josie, have you always been a Scout?

I was in the Girl Guides but when my brother Ethan joined Scouts and was having so much fun I decided to join too.

I gather that you are still an active member of Scouts.

I moved up to the Modbury Explorers when I was 14 but I still help out with Beavers. I've also been selected to attend the 23rd World Scout Jamboree in Japan in 2015.

Wow, how did you get picked to go to Tokyo?

Two of us from Modbury Scout applied and had to attend a weekend of trials. When we arrived, we had to go on a hike straight away. Next day we were put into groups and had to do different activities. We were both chosen to represent the South Hams out of all the other Scout Clubs in the area, we are very proud.

What's involved in the Jamboree and why is it so important?

I think that over 40,000 children will be in Tokyo working together for 9 days on different activities and learning about each other's culture and customs. The theme for the 23rd Jamboree is Wa, which means Peace, Harmony, Balance, Unity and Cooperation.

Does the Scout association pay for you to go?

No, we have to raise £3,300 each and also prove that we have done the fundraising.

Gosh, that's an awful lot of money to raise, how are you doing it?

I do a lot of babysitting and work in the White Hart some evenings. We had a quiz night in the Memorial Hall a few months ago which went very well and we did bag packing in Morrison's in Kingsbridge and Plymouth and Tesco's in Exeter and have others planned. In October we are putting on a concert in the Memorial Hall with lots of young musicians performing to help raise funds. This will be held on October 18th from 7.30 to 10pm at the Memorial Hall. Tickets are available from Modbury Melodies or for sale on the door.

Modbury Cricket Club - Rodney Bomford

When I came to Modbury I was surprised there was no Cricket Club, now I find out there is!! How long have you been going?

We had our first match in 2009 against Kingston! Our team was a mixture of interested people who frequented the Exeter Inn and The Bistro, and our match was against the Dolphin Inn, Kingston!! We called it The Liquid Lashes and we still play them every year. We enjoyed playing and Mars kindly let us practice on their grounds and from playing one match in 2009 we now play several during the season.

Does one have to be really good to join?

No, some of our members haven't played since school but enjoy the game and we have some light hearted fun. We have started a junior group who are coming along nicely. Net practice is on Wednesdays, April to mid September (weather permitting) from 5.30 to 7.30 on the QE11 Rec and Juniors are on Tuesday evenings from 6pm ages 10-16. If anyone is interested just come along or phone me on 01548 831277.

Badminton - Lynn Weeks

When did Badminton start in Modbury?

The origins of The Modbury Badminton Club date back to the 1930's when Edith Irish and a friend set up a club and they played once a week in a room in the Red Devon Hotel. Modbury was a founder member of the South Hams Badminton League and in the 1990's we swept the board winning the 1st and 2nd division trophies plus the Men's division cup which really put us on the map!

It's amazing to think it's been going for so long. If someone wanted to join would they have to be an experienced players?

The Club currently meets in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evenings (September to end of April) with play from 7.30 till late. So if anyone is interested in joining please contact Gill Jolly 01548 831263. With only one court it does mean that it is difficult to accommodate beginners but there is scope to resurrect a session prior to 7.30 for juniors or beginners if there is sufficient interest.

School News and Leisure.

Pre School News:

Schools out at Modbury took off over the summer with a flying start! Providing care for children from 3-11 years old from 8am- 5pm Monday - Friday. It was a huge success with children going swimming, attending Beach school, going on trips, doing cooking, arts and crafts and generally having a whale of a time! You may have noticed the bold banner kindly designed by super mum Zoe Thorp, which is hung on the front of the school fence facing Palm cross green advertising this great new resource! The holiday club is not exclusively for Modbury children but for children of surrounding villages and towns too. Schools out at Modbury received an amazing £10,000 Big Lottery Funded grant. This huge boost of funds was down to the hard work of another super mum, Tess Stuber. Through blood, sweat and tears Tess secured the funding for the holiday club literally days before it was due to open. Thank- you Tess, all your hard work and perseverance has really paid off. Modbury now has this extremely valuable resource for working parents to utilise for many years to come.

More exciting news.....We are now providing breakfast club, after school club and holiday club care!

Whatever you need let us know!

Holiday club will be open this half term and we are taking bookings now! So please give Kate a call on 01548 831477 or 07977853225, or why not check out our facebook page "Schools out at Modbury". We will be open Monday-Friday 8am-5pm during the school holidays.

School News.

New term, new team

Modbury Primary School is positively buzzing. After a summer make over and a new team on board, including head teacher Tess Coulthard, it has quickly got into its stride.

There are some amazing new initiatives in the pipeline and the after school clubs are proving very popular.

Thank you to GLUT who very kindly donated £75 to start up a gardening club.

Miss Howarth will be running the club for the school and has bought a couple of raised beds, some compost and some tools.

The children will learn about growing fruit and veg from seed and the seasons.

GLUT is a local Modbury initiative where people who grow surplus home fruit and veg sell it in Petty Cache. Any money left over is donated to charity and we are delighted to have been a recipient.

Howden's Joinery of Kingsbridge have donated kitchen sinks for the art room and Phil from Light Works Electrics has been amazing contributing hours of his time to get the new learning resource centre up and running.

Many parents helped during the summer holidays to get this room ready for the first day of term and their support means money raised by the PTA is used for the children's benefit.

So many people have generously donated time and funds including Modbury Fair, Joel Wright, who has helped with the plumbing, and our new caretaker Debs.

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

World War One: CENTENARY EXHIBITION

to commemorate the loss of life of Modbury men in the Great War and to highlight local events and activities during the 1914-1918 period. It features profiles of two parishioners who were killed during the conflict, Horace Michelmore DCM and Arthur Haskell, together with photographs of associated military memorabilia. There is also supporting documentation regarding life in Modbury during that period. The Exhibition will be displayed in the Chapel of Remembrance for the service in St George's Church, on Remembrance Sunday, November 9th, and later in the Parish Office and, it is hoped, in the School.

Laurence Binyon's poem For the Fallen will be read by Roger Gage at the service. It was composed by Laurence as he sat on the cliffs in North Cornwall in 1914, and is a tribute to all casualties of war, regardless of nation. Within the poem is this stanza selected by the Royal British Legion.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning,
"We will remember them."

MODBURY LOCAL HISTORY SOCIETY

Our first meeting of the new series of lectures, held on 10th September and was well attended. President Philip Andrews opened the meeting by saying that we had all been saddened by the recent passing of Derek Smith who had been a loyal member of the Society for many years. Our condolences go to Rita and family, Dell will be missed by us all. The speaker for the evening was Peter Brooks whose subject was ANCIENT EGYPTIAN TECHNOLOGY. He gave a fascinating account of how the Egyptians constructed their monuments, statues and obelisks in very hard materials, and were able to repeat each item in exactly the same style, several times in some cases. But without the aid of modern equipment, nobody has yet discovered how they were able to carry out such feats. If anyone can come up with the answer please let Peter know! On October 8th Robert Hesketh returns with an illustrated talk about Devon Inns, I wonder how many of them we shall recognise! This will be in the White Hart Assembly rooms by courtesy of the management to whom we are indebted for setting out the chairs for each meeting. Any member who has not paid their annual subscription is reminded we charge £10.00 per annum, £3.00 for casual visitors. Meetings commence at 7.30pm David Mitchell

Parish Council Report & Contacts.

Your views on how any Section 106 money could be invested locally:

A section 106 agreement is a levy or tax negotiated between a developer and a local authority as part of an agreement to planning consent for large developments.

It effectively diverts some of the increase in land value created when planning consent is granted to the local authority for investment within the community that they are responsible for.

The local authority, in this case South Hams District Council can take into consideration, but is not bound by it, local opinion on how best to use the monies released within the community.

We would like to hear your views on how you think any monies released as a consequence of the potential Palm Cross proposed development could be best used within the Parish.

Please express your opinions in writing to the Parish Clerk before the end of October 2014 and we will collate all the views expressed and forward them to South Hams District Council."

Local Information.

Message to all dog owners.

Recently the District has seen an increase in the amount of dog fouling. Dog fouling in any part of the South Hams is unacceptable.

Dog faeces are known to carry the toxicara parasite, which can cause blindness in children. There is also concern that E-coli may be caught by contact with dog faeces. It is therefore a serious health hazard.

The Dogs (Fouling of Land) Act 1996 states that dog fouling must be picked up and disposed of forthwith. Bagged faeces may be deposited in a dog bin, litter bin or household dustbin. Please DO NOT bag faeces and leave them anywhere else!

There is NO EXCUSE for any dog fouling anywhere in (Town/Village name). I have been made aware of the problems and will be making extra visits to the area. Anyone breaking the law who is witnessed by the Dog Warden will be subject to a £80.00 on the spot fine or a maximum £1,000 fine if taken to court. SHDC will also act on information it receives, if we are provided with a date and time, together with the identity of an offender, SHDC will issue a Fixed Penalty Fine. If you have any information, please contact the Dog Warden on 01803 861117. All information is treated in "strictest confidence".

This may seem draconian, but unfortunately, some dog owners are persistently failing to clean up after their dogs, and sadly, therefore, dog owners in general are getting a bad name.

Please help to keep the village clean and make it a safe environment for everyone. As the evenings (and soon, the mornings) get darker please ensure that you take a torch with you when you walk your dog, this will ensure that you are properly prepared and able to clean up after your dog.

Tracey Weaver, Dog Warden. SHDC
